

Abstract: Predator-Prey Model

The predator-prey model is a pair of first-order, nonlinear, differential equations used to describe the dynamics of biological systems in which two species interact. The populations change over time according to the system, which represents the relationship between the species. We investigate a nonlinear, predator-prey model that is dependent on a parameter .